MAKE A DIFFERENCE—BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

Interested in helping your credit union while building valuable experience? DVFCU's Supervisory Committee is looking for members who are detail-oriented, curious, and committed to serving fellow members. The committee meets once a month and helps protect members' interests by overseeing audits and reviewing credit union operations. It's a great opportunity to learn about financial services, strengthen your résumé, and make a meaningful contribution to your credit union.

To learn more about serving on the committee, contact John Pamer at (925) 771-5600.
